Introduction

On the 25th May 2018 the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) became applicable and the current Data Protection Act (DPA) was updated by a new Act giving effect to its provisions.

This Policy sets out the manner in which personal data of staff, students and other individuals is processed fairly and lawfully.

The School collects and uses personal information about staff, students, parents or carers and other individuals who come into contact with the School. This information is gathered in order to enable it to provide education and other associated functions. In addition, there may be a legal requirement to collect and use information to ensure that the School complies with its statutory obligations.

The School is a data controller and must therefore comply with the Data Protection Principles in the processing of personal data, including the way in which the data is obtained, stored, used, disclosed and destroyed. The School must be able to demonstrate compliance. Failure to comply with the Principles exposes the School and staff to civil and criminal claims and possible financial penalties.

Details of the School's purpose for holding and processing data can be viewed on the data protection register: <https://ico.org.uk/esdwebpages/search>

The School's registration number is Z2443380. This registration is renewed annually and updated as and when necessary. If searching the register only enter the reference number in the page of the search engine.

4. Accurate and kept up to date.
5. Data must not be retained for longer than we need it and we follow the storage limitation principle.
6. Held securely and ensure that we have the appropriate security measures in place to protect the personal data that we hold. This is referred to as the integrity and confidentiality principle and ensures we protect personal data.
